

Sphere chandelier by Lasvit

Dancing Leaves in the lobby of the Peninsula Paris hotel

BEST LIGHTING BRAND LASVIT

In association with The Rug Company

The Czech lighting couturiers won this category for their vision that marries illuminative technologies with kinetic capabilities. Much more than just an installation, Lasvit's mission is to transform glass into a unique light and design experience. Lee Broom, impressed by the brand's commitment to innovation, remarks: "The kinetic lighting sculpture Supernova is testimony to Lasvit's might in design and path-breaking technology."

COMMENDED Anglepoise at superstudio, Nouran Lighting, Preciosa

THE JUDGING PANEL

BRIGITTA SPINOCCHIA FREUND

Interior designer and founder of Spinocchia Freund

ELEANOR JOSLIN
Editor, Harper's Bazaar Interiors

LEE BROOM
Product designer and founder of Lee Broom

LYNDALL FERNIE
Lead tutor at Chelsea College of Arts

NEZ GEBREEL
CEO of Dubai Design and Fashion Council (DDFC)

RUE KOTHARI
Fair director of Downtown Design

SACHA WALCKHOFF
Creative director of Christian Lacroix

Tabriz Undyed rug. Inset: Farah Turquoise rug, both Hossein Rezvani

BEST TEXTILE BRAND HOSSEIN REZVANI

In association with TDesign

With Iranian highland wool, natural silk, and the highest grade of natural dyes, this label employs the very best practices of traditional rug making to create anything but your typical Persian carpet. "A Hossein Rezvani rug is collectible floor art," says Nez Gebreel. "I first fell in love with their work in London and I remain impressed by how they are revitalising our understanding of the Persian rug."

COMMENDED: Allegra Hicks at The Rug Company, LcD Textiles at Kens & Company, Samovar