

The Colour Purple

Looking at the predominant colour-ways amongst the carpet and textile designs, it is interesting to note that alongside the bright pinks and yellows, purple was still very much in vogue. Anadol Rugs, who showed at Atlanta, had some of the most colourful carpets at the show 9. At Domotex Hossein Rezvani showed some fabulously luxurious carpets illustrating dissolving classical rug designs drawn in silk with shades of purple and plum 10. A wonderful psychedelic Art Déco fabric with splashes of vibrant pink, blue and green was shown by French fabric house Casal at Déco Off in Paris 11, while Donna Wilson's colourful new rug collection for UK design firm SCP were showed at Maison et Objet 12. All of these are a great relief from the safe beiges and creams of so many interior products.
