

ELLE LUXE
MAGAZINE

8 ECO OBJECTS

1. Baboon Matters: Fundraiser Tee

Baboon Matters is a small, nonprofit organisation that advocates the ethical treatment of baboons across South Africa. In an attempt to raise awareness and improve safety for this unprotected species, they have turned to vegan fashion for help! Their Bonfire Tee Fundraiser has been created in order to spread the word on baboon conservation, with 100% of the profits going towards better protecting them.

2. Bonterra Organic Vineyards: Wine

Bonterra Organic Vineyards specialise in producing sustainably grown wines that are both vibrant and flavourful. Located in the Mendocino mountain range just north of Napa Valley, their belief is that organic farming and biodiversity produce better grapes, and therefore better wines!

BONTERRA.COM

3. Woodies Sunglasses

Created in 2012 by Cory Stout, Woodies are beautiful, beach ready products made from bamboo and wood, encapsulating a fun attitude towards life, which is simple and yet exciting. We especially love these classic Wayfarers, perfect for both men and women!

WOODIES.COM

4. Hossein Rezvani: Persian Carpets

Award-winning rug designer Hossein Rezvani creates beautiful, authentic luxury Persian carpets that are both environmentally friendly and ethical. Produced without the use of machinery or chemicals, these unique designs are created by Iranian carpet weavers using traditional craftsmanship techniques.

HOSSEINREZVANI.COM